REVIEW OF NAHMIA'S PRODUCTION AND OPERATIONS ANALYSIS SOLUTION

- Love these books. When I was a little girl, I read the Nancy Drew books over and over. They were my favorite. Now I am giving them to my niece.
- Written by, WHO? Patterson, who does mystery better than anyone in the business, wins with this touching story. Jennifer is very close with her grandmother, Sam, who is ill. Upon returning to Sam's house in order to be near her while she is sick, Jennifer is welcomed by a stack of letters written by Sam, intended for Jennifer to read in order to gain insight into her grandmother's life. In the meantime, Jennifer meets an old acquaintance and in her reluctance to do so, actually befriends him. Through him, she is able to find an outlet for her grief and guilt surrounding the death of her own husband. Very well-written, I can't wait for something new by Patterson!
