REVIEW OF SMALL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP 6TH EDITION

- Black Notice is a very satisfying addition to my favorite series of mystery novels. The combination of science and sensitive character development in each new adventure is a treat. Scarpetta, Marino, and the rest are like old friends now, and though at times our intrepid M.E. seems a little superhuman, she comes to terms with devastating personal loss in this novel. My only criticism of this page-turner is the uncharacteristic, blundering way that Scarpetta puts herself jeopardy in the final pages -- it almost seems that Cornwell ran out of ideas and decided to wind things up rather hastily. Or, perhaps I just hated for it to end (I always do!). Looking forward to The Last Precinct. . If you have just discovered Dr. Kay Scarpetta, be sure to start with the first novel (Post Mortem) and read them in order!

- This like all of books in the Scarpetta series is a brilliant and entertaining piece of fiction. Patricia Cornwell has a talent for writing books that you never want to put down. Although she has written many books in the Scarpetta series i have never found them to be repetitive, each novel continues to get better and better which is a great achievement, as not all authors can honestly say this to be true with their books. I just hope that Patricia Cornwell can continue to write such suspenseful novels in the future.
