REVIEW OF CLASS A CHERUB 2 ROBERT MUCHAMORE

- I've seen the movie so many times I can recite it. But the book is so much better!! For lovers of the movie, you have to suck it up and take on 1024 pages of passion, despair, and the most amazing love story ever. I love Scarlett and yet at the same time I want to wring her neck. I wish I had Rhett Butler - I'd treat him right!! At the end of the book, just like the end of the movie, I ended up with tears running hopelessly down my cheeks. In addition to the adventures of a spirited young woman from Georgia, Scarlett also reveals much truth about the devastation witnessed in Georgia throughout the war and during the terrible years of Reconstruction. It's a gem to be treasured, and read over again.

- I didn't think Comanche Eagle written by Sara Orwig would be that great. But I was pleasantly surprised. I enjoyed the story line very much. I liked the mix of characters, strong, intelligent tall woman, to sexy, handsome, strong half breed of a man, his pal, and a young boy all helped to make this story intriguing, interesting and satisfying. Even the ending was quite surprising, which I won't go into. Read the book and enjoy it. I'll definitely reach for her next book, Comanche Passion.
