REVIEW OF PENTAX LENSES GUIDE

- This story was about two people who are stuck between love and war. Patti is a very adventrus girl. She loves going to her dads store, and helping out. But, her dad beats her. Anton is a german soldier who is staying at a war camp. The war camp is a place for german soldiers. Patti meets Anton at her daddys store, and immediatly she falls in love with him. One night Anton escapes from the camp, and Patti sees him. She hides Anton in her garage. Then he falls in love with her. But, he knows he is putting Patti in danger.

- I think this was a pretty good book. I liked all of the characters, Sharon, Ruth, Anton and Patty. The only charcters that I truly did not like were Patty's mom and dad. I was very sympathetic toward the fact that Patty was abused. I could never have taken that. Even though after everything Patty has been through, her father's beatings, getting arrested, going to jail and have Ruth and Anton taken away from her she has managed to pull through and stay stronger than ever. I admire her for always trying to work everything out day by day. When things don't go your way you have to work it out or you will never be happy with your life or yourself.
