- This book was exciting at some stages and I quite like it. I recommend you to read this book. Joseph Balicki was the three childrens father and was a school teacher. The Germans took over Poland and wanted everyone to speak German. Joseph kept teaching in Polish so he was jailed in Germany. The children were separated as Poland was bombed. The children survived many years of hard times whilst looking for their parents. Edek smuggled food to survive and was caught taking butter and brought to Germany to slave.
