REVIEW OF ENROLL IN A COURSE PHQIX

- Just when I thought that The Cake Bible was the ultimate culinary experience, Rose Levy Beranbaum strikes again. I just bought a copy for my mother who taught me to love and bake my own pies from scratch. She lays it all out for you, step by step, and never leaves you hanging. Not only are there wonderful decadent recipies for pies of all kinds, but also for savory breads as well. How do I feel about this book? To paraphrase a famous saying -- you can have my Pastry Bible when you pry it from my cold dead fingers!

- Rose does it again! I have only just begun to indulge in this book, but have found everything so far to be as expected...spectacular! This has joined my other two favorites...The Cake Bible (of course) and Bernard Clayton's Book of Bread. Thank you Rose. Keep up the awesome work!
