REVIEW OF ENROLL IN A COURSE PHQIX

- Good book...characters are strong. Makes it seem like its happened just a few years ago... I can't wait to read this again...
- If you want to be challenged and entertained all at once, you can never do better than read C. S. Lewis. His fiction contains great theological truths, and his essays are not purely informative.The writing of C. S. Lewis is more like poetry. It sings. It glides. It pulls you in, and moves you on. It makes you laugh in surprise. It makes you think. And once you have read a book or essay by Lewis, you never view the world the same way again.The essays in this book are a good companion to God in the Dock: Essays on Theology and Ethics.His essay on "The Efficacy of Prayer" is one of the best explanations of prayer I have read. There are same great quotes about religion in "Screwtape Proposes a Toast" and I believe that the ideas in "Religion and Rocketry" form the background for Lewis's Narnia series and the Space Trilogy.If you like C. S. Lewis, you will like this book.
