REVIEW OF IF YOU WANT TO KNOW WHAT WE ARE A CARLOS BULOSAN READER

- It was an altogether wonderful book and I will definitely define reading more J.R.R. Tolkien books because I have read lots of books and this was by far my favorite
- The Hobbit is an excellent prelude to the Lord of the Rings. Bilbo Baggins sets out on an adventure with Gandalf the Grey and a band of homeless Dwarves, to the Lonely Mountains to retake the dwarves' home and confront Smaug (a dragon). Bilbo had to fight evil orcs, salvage wolves, giant spiders, and gollum. He found a ring that could make him invisible. When they got to the Lonely Mountains Bilbo, Gandalf, and the dwarves could find the entrance to the Dwarves home. Then after days of camping out they Bilbo saw the little tiny keyhole of the door. Bilbo went in alone and he talked to Smaug. Bilbo ran out because Smaug was trying to chase him. Smaug came out of the shaft and the dwarves, Bilbo, and Gandalf went in, but the key was outside. They had to get out through the front entrance. After days of walking in the place they came to the front entrance. The people of Laketown saw a small flicker of light. It was Smaug. The people cut the bridges to the town. Bilbo told a bird to tell an archer at Laketown to shoot at Smaug's left breast because it was open. The archer shot his best arrow and it went through Smaug. That was the end of Smaug. The elves and men learned of Smaug's death. They came to the Lonely Mountains to take the treasure, but the Goblins came also. The elves, men, and dwarves allied to fight the Goblins. A stone that hit his head knocked out Bilbo. When Bilbo wakes up he finds out that they have won, but some of the dwarves were wounded. Thorin, the leader of the dwarves was wounded and later died. Bilbo returned to his home and told the other hobbits about his adventure. I recommend this book for others to read because it is an interesting, adventurous, and great book to read. A moral from the story is to never give up and face your enemies. It also teaches you courage. Once you start reading this book you will probably keep reading to the end. My favorite part of this book is when the Laketown people were fighting Smaug. That's my favorite part because it has a lot of action. It tells how fierce a dragon could be.
