"A beautifully written contemporary romance, with plenty of enjoyable comedy, it challenges us to evaluate our lives and make big decisions on who we want to be and not necessarily what everyone expects us to be." - Adventures in Lit about The Campfire Series *PUBLISHER'S NOTE: Though this book should be read FOURTH in the series, this "piece of the story" is actually set between books 1 and 2 (One S'more Summer and S'more to Lose). So sort of like Book 1.5! We highly recommend that if it is your first time through the series to read it fourth. Enjoy!** Camp Chinooka was supposed to be a place of inspiration, the place where Perry Gilman would finally compose his symphonic masterpiece. But four years later, Perry Gillman isn't any closer to his dream of becoming a world renowned musician. Instead, he fell love in with Gigi Goldstein and he thought that love would be enough. Now, struggling to find the right subject for a new musical while hustling as a piano player at a local jazz bar, he can't help but measure his own shortcomings to his famous father's monstrous success. So, when he stumbles onto the idea to write a musical about the life and times of Elizabeth I, everything finally changes. The musical is an international sensation and suddenly, Perry is on the fast track to super stardom. However, fame and success come at a price. When his relationship with Gigi is thrown into a tailspin, he must decide whether to follow his dream for which he fought for so long or sacrifice it all for true love. Told from Perry's perspective, Tell Me S'more nestles in the timeline between One S'more Summer and S'more to Lose and shows that there are two sides to every story and a cost to every choice. The Campfire Series 1. One S'more Summer 2. S'more to Lose 3. Love You S'more 4. Tell Me S'more Praise for The Campfire Series "While any of the books can be read individually, all three are amazing reads, and complement one another so well, it's worth it to read the series in its entirety. All three received a much-deserved five stars from me!" - Chick Lit Central "While a lot of the other "beach read" romances I've read as of late fall firmly in the "formulaic and predictable" category, One S'More Summer is one of those rare finds that is a delightful departure... I'm honestly quite impressed it came from a first time author, Beth Merlin." - Only True Magic "What I thought was going to be just another summer romance story turned out to be so much more..." - Mama's Dirty Little Reads "I finished this book smiling, loving how the author wrapped everything up. This is a sweet little romance series, one that I think needs much more recognition and attention than it gets!" - Lisa Loves Literature "Merlin gives off Sophie Kinsella and Emily Giffin vibes only with an execution of plots that is all her own. Fans of the two authors will appreciate the prose and relationships and style of this series. They will, of course, recognize it is something all Beth Merlin.... (Beth Merlin is totally going to grow in popularity. I'm calling it.)" -Books and Broadway

Middle school is hard. Solving cases for the FBI is even harder. Doing both at the same time—well that’s just crazy. But that doesn’t stop Florian Bates! After helping the FBI solve an art theft at the National Gallery and uncovering a DC spy ring, Florian’s finding life at Alice Deal Middle School a little boring. But that’s all about to change! His FBI handler, Marcus, has a job for him! Is it a bank robbery? Counterfeit ring? International espionage? Actually it’s middle school pranks... Sounds pretty ordinary except that the pranks are happening at a prestigious private school attended by the President’s daughter who may—or may not—be involved. So Florian and Margaret are going undercover to see if they can use their TOAST skills to figure out what’s going on before the media gets hold of the story. However, once the crime-solving pair arrive at the school, they discover that there’s a lot more than a few pranks going on and the conspiracy of silence reaches all the way to the top. Then a student vanishes in the middle of a concert at the Kennedy Center and things take a sinister turn! Can Florian and Margaret save the day? Or are they about to get toasted?

REVIEW OF MISSING YOU SHEET MUSIC

- This book was an excellent continuation of the Dune saga. Can't wait to start Children of Dune. Frank Herbert hasn't let me down yet.
- Dune is an epic masterpiece by Frank Herbert. The story begins on the planet Caladan in the year 10,191, home to the House Atreides. Duke Leto, the head of the House Atreides has been named governor of the planet Arrakis, where the majority of the story takes place. After a collapse of House Atreides, his son Paul is taken in by the Fremen and given the name Muad'Dib. By harnessing the powers handed down to him by his Bene-Gesserit mother, and the focusing effect of Melange, the spice of spices that is only found on Arrakis, he challenges his enemies to try and take back his father's throne. This exciting science fiction novel will have you reading it multiple times, and keeping it close on your bookshelf. I would recommend this book to anyone who enjoys reading fiction, and especially to those who enjoy stories such as The Lord of the Rings, Star Trek, and even Harry Potter. Truly one of the greatest works of fiction of our time.
