REVIEW OF MANUSCRITOS DE NAG HAMMADI SCRIBD COM

- The greatest book ever to be put to print. The first time I read it I became utterly depressed, but I knew the book was too good to be merely dismissed as depressing. So I reread it and found it a harrowing novel. Helplessness is the best word to describe the feeling of this novel.
- Well, not exactly Animal Farm, but the same themes are pushed to their maximum logical end. Orwell writes of a government bent on controlling the people that obviously stems from a communist base. his stark future is frighteningly believable and his characters are human to a fault. they live fictitious lives to the best of their abilities. they are individuals in a sea of conformity no matter what the government may say. The book makes the reader aware of any numerous ways that people can be controlled. After reading it, any action heard taken by the government becomes suspect. As good literature should, it demands the reader superimpose the book onto daily life and do all they can to prevent such a future.
