REVIEW OF SENTENCE
CHECK 1 ANSWER KEY
CHAPTER13

• I don't really know if many of the people who give this book a luke-warm review even know what they are talking about. Take it at face value without putting too much forethought into the fact that Kurt Vonnegut wrote Slaughterhouse-five and you will realize that it is a great, thought provoking, hilarious novel. I would recommend anyone to give it a try.

• Three stars is a good rating for me. Rarely do I give 4 or more. That said, I thought the first 2/3 of this book was absolutely hysterical. Yes, it was juvenile. Yes, it was even infantile at times, but it was fun. If you're looking for a light hearted read, and you like satire, then this is the book for you. Vonnegut has the ability to make us laugh at what we are, when most would waddle in the misery and wretchedness of human behavior. A WARNING: this is not a book for the politically correct.
