REVIEW OF LARA CROFT TOMB RAIDER THE LOST CULT

- I read this book knowing that the story would go on for a space of 24 hours. Little did I know that the plot would be tiresome and the family relationships stereotypical. I found this book slow and dull and I could not bring myself to read it again. However the character Adam is fun to watch grow as a boy in the Revolution. The description of the Battle of Lexington was precise until I talked to a history whiz and realized its facts were not all true.
- This book, while quite old, is invaluable in understanding the problem of glamour. A must for any esoteric collection! The meditation contained at the end is quite long, but a great exercise in discipline.
