REVIEW OF PHILIPPINE PUBLIC FISCAL ADMINISTRATION LEONOR MAGTOLIS BRIONES

- WHAT A DISAPPOINTMENT!Steinbeck has reinvented himself in this work as a pretentious bore. Was this the man who wrote East of Eden? Hardly seems possible.This Steinbeck comes across as a pseudo intellectual who names his truck after Don Quixote's horse seems unaware that the New York license plates on the truck will influence what people think of him.He spends time between boring observations inserting a combination of Hemingway toughness and sophomoric intellectual "name dropping".I am sorry after 100 pages I quit...most of his insights were wrong and the few that were good weren't worth the pain.

- This low key book, supposedly about his travels by a motor home in the USA, is much more of a chat his perceptions of change in the USA (to the 1980's) and sometimes a chat about the places or people he sees. Excellantly written, as we know John Steinbeck can, and although softly wandering is not an easy book to put down. You want to find out more and the dog Charlie is a rewarding passenger having np views of his own.
