REVIEW OF CAMPBELL BIOLOGY CHAPTER 5 TEST PREPARATION

- Jane Eyre truly deserves its place in the pantheon of classic literature. The story of the orphan Jane Eyre pulls the reader in and doesn't let go. The reader is taken on a fascinating ride exploring passion, morality, and humanity. The first person narrative is extremely engaging as the title character is so deep and unique. Highly recommend this book to all readers.

- Jane Eyre is a wonderful novel. Jane is such a strong character and considering the time this book was written, it's amazing to me. Mr. Rochester is such a prototype of the male hero we see now. It is one of those books that make me want to cheer the characters on, weep with them when terrible things happen or slap the living crap out of a certain male cousin. One of my favorites!
