REVIEW OF THE BEGINNING OF EVERYTHING ROBYN SCHNEIDER

- Anyone who has studied the Viet Nam war, this book is a must read. Anyone who is considering joining the US military should read this book. Parents of children who want to enlist should read this book and share it with them. This is a warning of how the US Military does not practice what it preaches in "LEAVE NO MAN BEHIND". As a US Army Veteran I am ashamed of our government and would not encourage anyone to enlist. The book is well written backed up by numerous references. I could not put it down.

- This book is my favourite of all the books by this author. Chapter 8 is sublime as it explains how to develop love to its fullest potential. The whole theme of the book is that a highly advanced Buddhist monk is giving himself a teaching, often scolding himself & it is entertaining as well as inspiring.
