REVIEW OF ANDALUCIA TRAVEL

- I recommend 1984 because it was a great book for people who pay attention to the government and its happenings. Its not only politics its has a hint of a love story, but its mostly about the control of the government in a totalitarian society. It was really interesting how it gave a look at the life of somebody in that kind of society where you have no freedom or choices. 1984 makes you want to know whats happening in government more. It was also fun to see what he thought 1984 would be like because 1984 was nothing like it. The book i believe would to be too hard from anything below 6th grade, a slight challenge for middle schoolers and a perfect level for mid highschool any older or wiser it would be a great quick read.

- George Orwell's 1984 is a riveting story of science-fiction where everyone is constantly watched and every move analysed. It is also, and more, a sociological book about totalitarianism. It asks the question?: What if the government could read your mind? How could they control your life? What do they need to do to control your life? How to they get you to think like they do? The answer to all is by controlling the media. You control the information the public gets, then you can control their opinion. It is a book about power and how bad it can get. It also talks about the different classes in the society, how they act toward each other. Even if the book was written quite some time ago, the answers it provides are still quite accurate, and that's what makes it such a powerful book.
