REVIEW OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES THOMAS L FLOYD 8TH EDITION

- In the growing collection of Man-Kzin War stories, this book doesn't reveal any new insights, revelations, or twists. It does contain some decent writing, though. A good weekend read; perhaps a paperback edition would be more appropriate.

- Alright, lets be honest for a moment: Kerouac does repeat himself - that is a fact. But what he also does is make us readers feel as though its the first time we've heard it. Thats a sign of a good writer. He's my favorite writer, and this is one of his best works. Its all about his getting involved in Buddhist philosophy, mainly because of the protagonist of this book, Japhy Ryder (Gary Snyder). The book is intimate, witty, and at times hilariously bizarre. Its not just good, its great. Its a must-have for your library. But dont just put it on the shelf, dammit, read it!
