REVIEW OF 150 CAKE RECIPES INSPIRED IDEAS FOR EVERYDAY COOKING 150 RECIPES

- I read this book over the summer and it was so good that I kept putting it down as I didn't want it to end! Dicken's "Tiny Tim" is now all grown up at 23 in 1860 and is living in a London brothel, where he teaches the mistress how to read and write in exchange for board. He discovers three dead girls that have died in an unusual way, and he sets out to find out how and why. Include a colourful cast that includes a street urchin and an Italian orphan, and you've got yourself a fantastic, brilliant read. It is easily one of the best books I've ever read.

- It is the worst book I have ever seen. I passed both CFA and AICPA and familiarize with those materials. I still find it difficult to follow. Not clear explanation, contradiction among arguments and wrong answers for the sample questions. I am very disappointed.
