REVIEW OF THE MIND PLAY STUDY GUIDE

- The fact that so many have posted positive reviews speaks volumes about this book. And since there are more than several synopses, I'll forego that. Gregory has written a riveting historical about the Boleyn siblings, Anne, Mary, and George, and the relationships between King Henry VIII and, first, Mary as his mistress, followed by Anne, a crafty plotter who wanted nothing more than to be queen. We all know the tragic end to the story, but Gregory's retelling of this brief time in history is magical.

- This book is incredible. I read it in a week (and I don't consider myself to be a fast reader). Now I'm lending it to all the women I know (5 so far; all of them loved it. My mother-in-law read it in two days. TWO DAYS!)
