REVIEW OF HUMAN DISEASES 3RD EDITION

- (Me have limited vocabulary for describing excellence without sounding repetitive).I was impatient to get this book and get my Wizardry fix. So when I finally got my hands on it, I read it as fast as I could. The idea is brilliant and it becomes obvious to the reader that Miss Duane has plans for her universe. Her characters are evolving and it is this that makes them real to the reader. Anyone can pick up this series casually, but by the time they get to this book (for the slow ones ;) they will be more than casual readers -- they will be drawn into Miss Duane's universe happily and readily.

- A masterpiece by Irving Stone. You admire this book more if you have seen van Gogh's paintings. But I really wonder, does this book truly depicts van Gogh's life? It seems to me that Irving Stone has romanticized van Gogh's life. His life might have been as dull as mine or yours. But Irving Stone's presentation has made a whole lot of difference. This is an amazing book, inspiring and I feel one can relate to this very easily.
