REVIEW OF CBSE SAMPLE PAPER CLASS 10

- David Robbins writes some of the most fascinating tales wrapped around known history that I have ever read. This novel spins an awfully believable tale surrounding the death of FDR! Totally fiction.

Totally enjoyable! If you have never read David L Robbins, do yourself a big favor and dig in!

- I bought this book in a hurry, just for the imagery. However, later, when I had a chance to actually read it, I was pleasantly surprised. It is a quite intelligent and creative summation of the past 1000 years. Although it hits all the usual highlights, this book rises above the Time-Life standard, sinking neither into sentimentality nor into thoughtless platitudes. I would recommend this book to people who are building image collections. Additionally (and I mean this in the best possible sense), this is the kind of book that should be in doctors' waiting rooms: it can be read in fits and spurts, and is a smart picture book. It might also reengage a middle-schooler who has gone off socail studies.
