REVIEW OF BMW 320I 2010

- Fairly good. Suspense is maintained, though perhaps drawn out too long. And the characterizations of the main players are well done, plus there's some sharp, witty dialogue. But the ending seems to be written for Hollywood, garishly melodramatic. And I'm not one who usually can predict endings (my wife can), but in this one I could see where the plot (the pattern and motives for the killings) was heading from about the midpoint of the novel--tho I didn't know the identity of the killer, which seemed to come out of the blue. I'll probably try another Lescroart.

- Free Fall by Jill Shalvis is another compelling story of the heroes in our lives. Logan White loves his job on the Search and Rescue team. The rush of excitement and the chance to make a difference. He is finally taking a much-needed vacation on the ski slopes. Logan meets ski patroller Lily Harmon and the sparks fly. Lily is a woman after his own heart. Lily is forever trying to put her wild past behind her. Though she still loves adventure, her family refuses to see her for the grownup she has become. This starts out as a short-term affair but Logan has his hardest work ahead of him with Lily. She isn't sure she can go the long haul but she doesn't want to let Logan go either. Free Fall has the sexual tension and chemistry that is off the charts. Lily and Logan are an awesome couple in and out of the bedroom. They were a joy to read.
