REVIEW OF JENSEN VM8113 USER GUIDE

- Because of its extensive bibliography and excellent index, this biography of William Procter, Jr., serves well as an introduction to the origins of professional pharmacy in the USA. For more information about the book and its topic, contact the American Institute of the History of Pharmacy (AIHP).
- I enjoyed his book. It was funny although a bit too much one liners. I did however DISLIKE the comparison of one of the characters looking at another like "an Ethiopian child looks at a seven course feast" or something like that. Really? There is NOTHING even REMOTELY funny about a STARVING CHILD!!! Although I managed to finish the book, and enjoyed other aspects of it, that one line stayed in the back of my mind. :(
