REVIEW OF AUDIO 30 APS

- A must for anyone interested in the criminal mind.
- I did not grow up with the Oz books. I first read this story when I was about 11. And I WAS surprised at how DIFFERENT it was from the MGM movie. So many things were changed, added and cut. This story is both delightful and charming. A living scarecrow, a woodman made of tin and a lion that is cowardly all go searching for wisdom, love and courage that they all already have. But in this ORIGINAL story it talks a lot about DEATH, and there are some VIOLENT and SCARY scenes that I am GLAD that MGM either omitted or just didn't put in. Especially since most of those scenes involve my dear Tin Woodman. I am having so much trouble accepting my dear Tin Woodman being once a man of flesh and bone and having a REAL name (Nick Chopper) and being the King of the Winkies and especially not seeming to have a REAL heart. Especially since Denslow's illustrations make him look so positively CUTE!
