REVIEW OF PAST PAPERS MATHS EDEXCEL NOVEMBER 2013

- This is the gorgeous gold boxed edition with photocopies of Tolkien's own notes, hand-drawn maps, and original manuscripts inserted. Just beautiful. I love to find notes and sketches and highlights in books, so I bought an "acceptable" version, and it is pristine! I can probably see my face shining in the "very good" ones! :P I don't need to rate the literature itself. It's The Greatest Adventure! <3 If you haven't read The Hobbit, I honestly feel sad for you; you are missing out on something huge, something magical, something beautiful. "In a hole in the ground, there lived a hobbit." Isn't that a wonderful beginning? ;) Yes, I'm that jerk who bought the book because the movie came out, but only because I hadn't read it in years and couldn't find my own copy. I wanted to catch up again before I saw the movie. Still haven't seen it!

- I've seen the cartoon in the 90's and the first of Peter Jackson's Hobbit trilogy. I am really glad I finally read this book. I had a good time reading it. All of the adventures were very fun.
