REVIEW OF THE MAULER

- Back in the 60s everybody was reading this guy. I met a young psychology professor the other day and I thought I'd name drop. I mentioned Erich Fromm. He never heard of him. I was shocked. But a week before that I was at a law library and the law student behind the take-out desk never heard of Clarence Darrow. You know there are young people who don't know who Bob Cousy is? In any case, this is a very intelligent book. I still have Erich Fromm sitting on my night table. Right now I am reading the Anatomy of Human Destructiveness. The Art of Loving was one of my favorite. I took psychology in college because I liked so many of Erich Fromm's books. Unfortunately psychology was all about rats, monkeys, dogs and ginney pigs. Erich Fromm was all about people. I could never figure it out. Richard Edward Noble - The Hobo Philosopher - Author of: "A Summer with Charlie"

- I am a Halo addict. I have been playing the game over and over for awhile now. At all levels of difficulty. I have been a trekie, and star wars buff. Sorry I'm disposed toward all Sci-Fi.
