REVIEW OF RETEACHING ACTIVITY 5 ECONOMICS ANSWER

- The year long journey from the lands of the Mammoth Hunters in her last book; Plains of Passage is over. Ayla meets Jondalar's mother and sister and his spurned girlfriend who he left behind. Marona despises Ayla and tries her best to embaress her but infact it strengthens her instead. But when they discuss the Clan members with Marthona, Ayla's ties to them is revealed but they do not mind her ties to them except for a few members of the Zeladonii who don't like the Clan. I have read this book within 24 hours after I got it last Sunday morning. My mom is right now reading it, so far I give it four stars. It is a little off from Plains of Passage and Mammoth Hunters but it is good.

- I have every book in the Earth's Children series & looked forward to reading book 5. Unfortunately, I'm not even half way thru the book and feel like putting it aside. It's repetitious in ways that are beyond boring such as the greetings done with Ayla. We get the idea after the first greeting. It seems as though the author wasn't quite sure what to put in this book but felt it was necessary to put a book 5 out there because her readers were eager for it. Next time, wait until there is something to write. The readers will wait eagerly! But this makes me wonder if the next book is also going to be boring.
