REVIEW OF AP PSYCHOLOGY CHAPTER 14 VOCABULARY

- I've found this book totally different from any other tutorial stuff. In spite of my past programmers experience in database I've started studying OOP from scratch more than one year ago. I had several books of Java-programming (Deitel&Deitel, Mike Morgan, Peter Norton etc.). I've got prefer this one. Author give to readers the pretty excelent refferences. I would say that this book ought to read whether you beginers in OOP or not. This book will compel you work. It is inexhaustible source for Java programming.

- As mentioned by the previous reviewer, this version is missing quite a bit of key content. Whether it's a formatting issue with the Kindle or the transcriber forgot to include the passages is unclear. But the story is unreadable without the missing text.
