REVIEW OF BY ROBERT PINDYCK MICROECONOMICS 7TH EDITION

- I loved the story "Chocolate Footballs."

However, for the most part I felt a certain sameness throughout the stories, as though the characters were essentially repeated, but the names had been changed. I felt a middle-class blandness throughout. Besides the tick in "Chocolate Footballs," nothing memorable happens; no lasting impact. Still, it was a good read and I enjoyed the stories.

- This book was great! It was very fun. And I want to say I hate people who say this book was for 3rd graders, because it was not.
