REVIEW OF 1 10G 25G HIGH SPEED ETHERNET SUBSYSTEM V2 XILINX

- I would recommend this book to every citizen of this planet. I have read millions of books and this by far is my favorite!! The most amazing!!!
- There was something missing in this book and I believe it was the lack reality. I thought it was very funny but it was too unrealistic. I mean come on- a woman meets the man of her dreams the same day she is going to court to get a divorce- which yes that by itself could happen- but then the dream man happens to be severly commitment-phobic (he equates commitment to marriage and marriage to death) but after living with her for a few days he falls in love and asks her to marry him and obsesses over the idea of marrying her (oh yeah and it just so happens that he moves into her house the day after they meet because he is protecting her from a psycho ex-husband). It was cute and all but as I was reading it just got more and more unbelievable. When I'm reading a book I like to believe that the story could potentially happen in real life. This story is too far fetched. The whole book (newly divorced girl meets commitment phobic boy, move in together, fall in love, and decide to get married) happens in less than two weeks! It is funny though with all the dogs and the dialouge. so it's an easy funny read but it doesn't leave a warm fuzzy feeling behind because it's based in la-la land.
