REVIEW OF EXPLORING SCIENCE HSW EDITION YEAR 6 ANSWERS

• I think this latest Grisham offering is very well developed. I like his characters, the southern setting, and in general find it to be worthy of his name.Raymond AustinTelevision director of The Saint, The Avengers, Hawaii Five-O, Hart to Hart, Vegas, Quincy, Magnum, P.I., AirWolf, Spencer: For Hire, JAG and many others. And the author of, "The Eagle Heist" and "Dead Again" from the Beauford Sloan Mystery series.

• This is a tale of one town Clanton Mississippi but in a way it is two books. The first is a story of the Danny Padgett case and the young crusading newspaper editor who makes his smalltown weekly on the strength of his coverage of the trial. It is also a tale of race relations in rural Mississippi as change finally comes to Clanton. Unlike several of Grisham's latest legal tomes, the trial story rings with authenticity. I would have preferred greater development of the Padgett case, leaving the second story as an excellent subplot. Both stories would have been more meaningful. But make no mistake, while this is not A Time To Kill (also set in Clanton) it is his best legal thriller in many years. It could have been more thrilling, that's all.
