REVIEW OF JAVASCRIPT FOR ABSOLUTE BEGINNERS

- This can be an aggravating book. On the plus side, Kohler includes pictures of a great many extant garments, which are invaluable as a resource (the book's value as a source rises considerably after 1500 for this reason). On the other hand, there are many "patterns"--especially in the medieval period--which, unless you read carefully, can be interpreted as being taken from extant garments, and the introduction claims almost outright that these diagrams are "correct." They are not, being instead Kohler's own hypotheses. Many of them do not work as patterns. I have known many a beginner who took these diagrams as gospel and have ended up with nothing resembling an actual medieval garment. Use the illustrations (but not the "patterns") and the book can have some degree of usefulness.

- Just finished this on my Kindle, Great book! I loved the characters and how the story is told through both Angela and Lauren's eyes. It was a heartbreaking and heartwarming novel all at the same time, amazing. I highly recommend.
