REVIEW OF STATICS 7TH EDITION

- This is a very thoughtful and very original book that provides excellent readings of some familiar figures, such as Yeats and Walcott, and fine introductory reflections on writers less well-known in America. The approach is generous but tough-minded, the prose is strong; this is exemplary work in the area of post-colonial studies.
- I bought the book for my husband who REALLY likes Chesterton. Talks about his witticisms constantly and comments about something in the book every time EVERY time he reads any of it.
