REVIEW OF EXCELLENT ENGLISH MCGRAW HILL BOOKS AUTHOR BOOKS

- I had to smile as I read this book, because Colin (our hero) was a little "too" perfect. However, the plot made me forget this, and I realized his pigheadedness was indeed his flaw. I loved Alesandra, and the way she managed to organize her life, despite the men in it. The author kept one engaged and although I guessed who the bad guy was, I still wanted to read the story and see how it unfolded. It's a good read, and I'd like to read the rest of the series!

- Given Warren Buffett's candid and witty writing style, I don't understand why one would rather read those lousy interpretation of WB's shareholders' letters than read the original shareholders' letters. But, if you want to get the gem of those shareholders' letters directly, you must read this excellent collection of essays. The editor does a great job in collecting and organizing WB's letters in a way that readers can more easily come to understand WB's investment philosophy in his own words. Anyway, you've got to go to Berkshire Hathaway's website to read the original. I'm sure you will enjoy it.
