REVIEW OF MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM SADAGOPAN DOWNLOAD

• Cannery Row depicts many forms of human nature. The good, the bad, the ugly. But best of all it shows how friendship can endure through all sorts of hardships and that it has no boundaries. A Doc can be best friends with a homeless man. My trip to Monterey inspired me to read this book, and I would definitely recommend a trip to Monterey after you've read this book. Just seeing the history of Cannery Row, and how it has strived since the times of Steinbeck is amazing. I definitely give this book 5 Stars, and a trip to Monterey on anyone's Bucket List.

• Oh how lovely. Bellamy forgot to mention the millions of people that were liquidated for the purpose of creating this little fantasy world of his. What happened to all the people that didn't quite agree with this little society and wanted to do their own thing? This is probably the most stupid book I have ever read. Let's just judge imperfect present with our imaginary vision of the supposed perfect future. Great, we all know where that leads. Bellamy would have been a good killer for Stalin, until he finally got choked by the machine himself.
