REVIEW OF ONKYO RECEIVER REPAIR

- I live in solitude, so I thought the book would be about a guy like me. But it was something completely different. The book tells the rise and fall of an imaginary city, complete with stories about incest, lust, hate, and love. Some of the passages that Gabriel Garcia Marquez writes, could have single handily won him the Noble Prize for literature. "She spun an invisible web around him, which he had to remove every night with his bare and ringless finger." Or something like that. It was a great story. Worth the read. The beginning will swallow you into the book. It starts with a soldier who is about to die, recanting a memory about his childhood. After that, you are taken into a world of magic and reality.

- I've read this masterpiece 7 times since I was 17, now I am 24...Everytime I read it, I discover new things, even author's mistakes. I just love it. Should be read by everybody.
