REVIEW OF DR VIJAY AGRAWAL BOOK PDF

• Lust at first sight. One look at new guest Irene Stenson, and wickedly handsome, ex-marine turned lodge owner Luke Danner flips on the NO VACANCY sign at his Northern California Ventana Lake resort. Guest relations at the Sunrise on the Lake Lodge now include very personal service --- ALL NIGHT LONG.A surprise email from Irene's best friend forces Irene to return to the town that harbors her darkest memories and the basis of her fear and obsessions. Finding the body of her best friend Pam the day she arrives back in Dunsley enhances Irene's fears, but sexy Luke Danner proves to be Jayne Ann Krentz's cure for a traumatized Irene. "His smile was so slow and so wickedly inviting."Trying to escape his "interfering, meddling, intrusive" family and their desire for him to help run Elena Creek Vineyards, Luke buys the Sunrise on the Lake Lodge looking for some peace and quiet to write a novel and deal with any lingering post traumatic stress disorder from his marine days. Instead, Luke becomes involved with Irene in connecting the dots between scandal, murder, blackmail, sordid videos, and the truth about what happened to her parents seventeen years ago.Family secrets: "One thing's for sure, every family's got'em." Patriarch Victor Webb is a very powerful man. He has been directing his son's career for years and has the town and the sheriff in his back pocket, or so he thinks. His son, Senator Ryland Webb, leads a very public life, especially since he is running for the White House, but his dirty little secrets are being revealed by those he trusts most. Wealth, blackmail, power, political ambitions and murder are no match for Irene Stenson and her quest for the truth about her parents' deaths. Traumatized by finding her murdered parents in the dark on the kitchen floor at age fifteen, Irene leads a life of paranoia about the dark. She develops nighttime routines to cope, but not until Luke's "soft, husky groan" does she begin to find the solution to her nighttime fears. In the course of the novel, Luke and Irene find a dead body, burn down a house, take on a senator with the town in his back pocket, reveal family secrets, solve mysterious deaths, uncover incriminating DNA evidence, and fall in love. In this fast-paced novel Jayne Ann Krentz methodically unfolds the mystery that ties together the deaths of Irene's parents and the death of her best friend as she thrusts the hero and heroine into trouble and into bed. "In the glow of the night-light," Irene begins to conquer her fear of the dark, her nightmares and midnight jitters finding contentment in Luke's embrace. Luke demanded "a kind of surrender that she had never been able to give any man." Krentz builds the romance between the characters realistically and romantically, including the awakening of Irene's feminine powers. Armed with a new confidence and a new love, Irene finds the truth that sets her free. When the heroine is left "dazed and breathless" by the hero, Krentz can count on another bestselling novel her fans will read all night long. ALL NIGHT LONG begins with lust at first sight and ends with the best combination --- lust and love.--- Reviewed by Hillary Wagy

- This is a really nice chronicle of Muhammed Ali's life and times. The writing here is just as inspired as the subject, so even non-boxing fans can appreciate it. Don't be put off by Early's poor introductory essay -- get the the meat of the book and you won't be disappointed. I'm glad I read this book.
