REVIEW OF CHEMISTRY MATTER AND CHANGE STUDY FOR CONTENT

MASTERY CHAPTER 12 ANSWER KEY

- This book was required for my university-level elementary japanese class. I really disliked it. I found it extremely unclear. The explanations for grammar were minimal and not nearly as extensive as they should have been for an english speaker trying to learn a language as unfamiliar as japanese. The book isn't engaging at all and actually made me lose my excitement for the language. It makes Japanese more of a struggle than it actually is. Don't but it if you don't have to.
- I have been a real fan of Jan Karon and Father Tim, even reading both Father Tim novels, although this is not the place to review them. Mitford is a comforting place to visit, and I have been forced to be immobile, so I re-read the Mitford books for escape. I remembered Light from Heaven as being Light-weight and disappointing, and upon reading it again suffered the same disappointment. It was not really a Mitford book - although some of the people from the earlier books were mentioned but not really part of the story. Just too many neat coincidences. I agree with some of the earlier reviewers that it seemed like the author just strung together some episodes and then just gave up. Sigh! Ps: I am a Christian very active in my church, but I like good people better when there is a little spice to them. Sometimes Father Tim just seems a little tooooo good to be true.
