REVIEW OF GLOBAL INTERMEDIATE WORKBOOK KEY MACMILLAN

- If you have ever gone into convulsions upon hearing the word "government" pronounced "GUV-uh-mint," then this book is for you. A delight for logophiles everywhere who are concerned with stamping out the terror of badly rendered pronunciations .

- First of all: A damned good book! Bonechilling material!! Furthermore:What kind of punishment do you give a man like Mengele?Deathpenalty? Life in prison? The first one is over too quick and the second one is too easy. No, I think Mengele has got the best punishment he could have. He was 34 years on the run. Never had a moment of peace in his entire life after the ending of WW2. The stress it brought him, even gave him a shorter span of life. He developed a lot of stress related sickness. Always had to look over his shoulder. Did they recognize him? Was this his last day of "freedom"? If he had been sentenced for life in prison he could have reached, like Hess, a respectable age well over 80 years old. Now he died 68 years of age. Alone and forgotten in some Godforsaken place in Brazil. He stucked, untill his dead, to his beliefs about the Nazi's and the Jews. A rigid and untolereant character of a man.He never got the chance to fullfill a job on his intelectuel level, always lowpaid workman's labour. Never could socialise with people of his intelect. That hurt him like hell. So, in fact, life in "freedom" was in fact life in hell. Never the hell he created for the people who died through his hands or command. But even we, as normal people, couldn't give him, if he had be captured, the torments he gave all those other innocent people. For that, we are to civilised. No, I think it has been for the best that he stayed on the run. He punished himself with it. More then we ever could give to him. I feel sorry for his son Rolf. You only get one biological father in your life and he got this one.
