REVIEW OF CIVIL SITE ENGINEER OFFER LETTER FORMAT

- This text is one of two TX state approved books. Having taught my teen son from this text, I have to say that it was direct and very well written. Facts and situations were well presented.
- The novel is wonderful! It will keep you enthralled from cover to cover, as the pages inbetween are filled with laughter, romance, adventure, history--a mix of genres and styles, all blended effortlessly by Willig's witty prose. Eloise

Kelly is quirky, realistic, and a pleasure to follow--especially when the story she follows is as exciting as Richard and Amy's! The love-hate premise for romance can be overdone, but Willig keeps it fresh, and before long you are just itching to see more of them together. Add on to that the beautiful backdrop of Napoleonic France, enlivened by Willig's Yale-Harvard historian background, and there is simply no way to go wrong. Honestly, ANY ONE who enjoys humor, romance, mystery, escapades and gloriously good writing should grab this book right away!
