REVIEW OF GLOBAL TRANSFORMATIONS POLITICS ECONOMICS AND CULTURE PDF BOOK

- Lowry's books have been sending me to new worlds since I was very young and first picked up her Anastasia series. Now, as a first year English teacher, her books are always on the top of my list as recommendations for my students. The Giver is no different. Lowry's simple style of writing is easy to read, yet it pulls you in completely. The Giver focuses on Jonas, a twelve year old boy who makes a tough decision concerning his future in "the community." Reminding the reader of certain elements of Anthem (Rand) and The Handmaid's Tale (Atwood), Lowry spins a tale of forgiveness and self-discovery. It is definitely recommended not just for my teen readers, but for anyone who has ever wondered what a utopian society is like
- The Giver is an interesting drama/fantasy about a boy that gets the greatest gift ever, yet wants to never get them in the first place. The novel starts and continues well, but the near ending of the book gets sloppy and unimaginative. I do not recommend this book for readers of dramatic tense, though.
