REVIEW OF THE COLLECTED WORKS OF CS LEWIS

• Jim the Boy, by Toney Earley, is a great book that is easy to read and you won't get bored reading it. It's one of those book as you get into it you want to read more and more. I would recomend this book to anybody, because it is intresting and it's a good way to realx by reading it.

• This is like my first try at writing - over-used plot, short chapters, small vocabulary, typical charachters. This book shows no writing skills whatsoever. Look at its title. "Jim the Boy". Very original.Yet the dialogues freaked me out the most:"..." Jim said"..." Uncle Coran said"..." said Jim"..." Uncle Zeno said.The word "said" probably has the greatest number of synonyms, but Earley never used any other word.The plot is an "oh so sweet" typical plot that I have seen so many times. Nothing special. No twists to it. A plain, dull, stupid plot. Just another boy without a parent during Depression.I can't even say much about this book, because there's NOTHING in it. If I didn't have to read this book for my school, I would never have read it beyong the 20th page.
