REVIEW OF SAMPLE PROPOSAL PAPER

- This is a great read for leading improvement for customer service. You'll keep coming back to it for reference and more ideas.
- This story, Poe's only novel, is an endurance test for both reader and characters. I believe it was originally serialized, and reads like a collection of incidents rather than a complete story. However, it is a captivating tale, astounding in its detail and casual horror.

Arthur Gordon Pym was born under an unlucky star. He survives in the most inconceivable circumstances, from a drifting, overturned hulk to the frozen waters of the Antarctic. Each page turned piles more horror in his path, described with a growing clinical distance. Pym himself becomes more desensitized to each incident, until he views the irrational with a casual curiosity. The language is beautifully detailed, and some feel this story is the inspiration for "Moby Dick." Altogether, a delightfully disturbing story. One of the best I have read.
