REVIEW OF THE CONQUEROR BRENDA JOYCE

- the only problem i had with the book is the bizarre location towards the end(others who have read it will know what im talking about, but i dont want to ruin it for people who havn't read it).but other than that it was my favorite of the books of lost swords.

- Never having heard of Josephine Tey, I purchased this book and another, "Brat Farrar" on the strength of the description.I have since read several other of the Tey collection, and I find them wonderful. Not a "mystery" in the usual sense, this is a novel which contains a so-called mystery. In other of her works, her Inspector Grant follows more conventional lines of investigating crimes. If you like one of Tey's books, I think you will like them all. I highly recommend them.
