REVIEW OF BOESMAN AND LENA SCRIPT

- Dexter's mysteries are so well written, whatever I read next suffers in comparison. I love the word play. The chapter intro quotes are also very clever.

- Since reading this book, I now understand so much more about nutrition and the diseases caused by the lack of certain important building-blocks to good health. If you need to really understand what cholesterol is, this is the book; if you are worried about fats and oils, this is the book ... you will even find out there are "good" fats or oils for the body! In this book you will find out why there are so many diseases which the medical world appear to be unable to find a cure for, you'll find the cure for most of our diseases and ailments are not in medicine, but in what you eat. I recommend this book to anyone who are really serious about nutrition. Why not give a copy to your GP?
