REVIEW OF

ZOOT SUITRIOTS AND THE ROLE OF THE
ZOOT SUIT IN*CHICANO

• This was a great book and a great start to the series. It pretty much made me feel every emotion imaginable. Jean is very descriptive which made some parts a little slow but it really got you into the story you could see everything she was talking about.

• This is a marvelous book; it deals with Ice Age and the coexistence of Neanderthal and Cro-Magnon. It is a vivid and lucid reconstruction of a long forgotten era. It is the first volume of a powerful series. The story is as follows: Ayla is Cro-Magnon orphaned by an earthquake and adopted by a Neanderthal female, from this point on, a strange world unfold. It's a discovery trip for Ayla and the reader. At the same time allows us a deep insight into "otherness". There are forceful descriptions of Ice Age habitat and Neanderthal culture, looking into stone technology, herb doctor techniques, hunting methods, weaponry, social relationships and whatever aspect of a civilization you may be interested it is shown. In the present world that is shrinking and cultural differences arise every minute, Ms Auel's work show the human common traits that make us kin to every other human being, even if it is as distantly related as a Neanderthal. Don't miss this experience! Reviewed by Max Yofre.
