REVIEW OF ENGLISH FILE INTERMEDIATE THIRD EDITION

- I really like the Baseball Prospectus website and I've been buying these books yearly for a few years now. It features pretty decent write-ups and PECOTA projections for most players. I enjoy the books and enjoy looking at the projections for my favorite players (even though I don't think they've ever projected one of my players to have a better year!). I do wish they'd start adding a little more to the book than they already do though. For instance this year they had a pretty decent write ups on fielder's arm values and pitcher counts. It'd be awesome if they'd throw in more than a few extra pages at the end of the book for stuff like this. That being said it's a good book to have fun with while we wait for spring training to wrap up and the real thing to begin. Just don't be THAT guy that decides to quote PECOTA projections as his only legitimate baseball argument.

- If you are interested in Renaissance Italy, gender studies, or the history of the Christian Church, this book is for you. This book presents the story of an ambitious abbess on the road to sainthood a la Catherine of Siena and her fall from grace as she becomes too powerful for the comfort of her male colleagues. It is the story of the making and unmaking of a saint. This is one of my favorite books of all time.
