REVIEW OF THE WAY OF THE NINJA SECRET TECHNIQUES

- A Judge Dee wandered into my hands years ago and I really enjoyed the experience. Later, when I wanted to "read him" again, I searched for a Chinese detective series with no luck, of course! I'm so glad to have finally found him at long last. Judge Dee is dignified, clever and patient: all of the characteristics of a great mystery main character. He kept me guessing the whole time, which I want my MC's to do. I feel let down when I can guess what's coming next

- Young eyes will widen as they discover what a little bunny finds between the covers of his storybook. He is entranced with the places that he is able to visit through the pages of his colorful book. First he journeys to a magic forest filled with his favorite flowers, very special friends, and even an approachable lion. He also likes his storybook because he can pick it up whenever he wishes for another adventure and surprise. Intended for the youngest of readers, here is an introduction to the joys of books sure to kindle children's imaginations. Soft color full-page illustrations enhance the simple text. - Gail Cooke
