REVIEW OF 2007 DODGE RAM 1500 SERVICE MANUAL

- OK, so after the 17 hundredth time (yes, I'm exaggerating), I have finally finished Little Women, and I'm so glad that I did! It's so totally excellent, and each chapter has a moral. Like, not to be vain or to not waste time or to not put much stock in riches, for money never was the equivalent to true love and happiness. I cried & sobbed, and laughed and just generally thought "I wish I were as contented as Beth, or as clever as Jo, beautiful as Amy & charismatic as Meg." You fall in love with each of these girls, and Miss Alcott gave such a perfect description. I LOVE this book! Read it, and you'll never regret it. Pefection, pure and simple. It isn't any wonder that this book has turned into such an American classic.

- Definitely a classic that I think should be required reading. There are some parts that are a bit drawn out, but overall I find it an excellent book.
