REVIEW OF ANSWERS TO ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES 8TH EDITION

- I bought this book for a friend--who is a real computer "guru." I figure it has to be a winner. I gave it to him and as he flipped through the pages, I kept hearing, "Aha!" "So that's why..." "Okay, if I do...." He didn't talk at all that afternoon. Just read the book. I'd say it was a winner.

- Upasika Kee Nanayon was an excellent teacher. Without higher ordination available to her, she no less dedicated her life to the Dhamma Vinaya and through her persevering effort can point others along the same path. This book is a Dhamma gem of lucid accessible brilliance. Clear and easy to understand, it is for those who are ready to work on disciplining the mind and purifying the heart. It offers practical insight on the workings of the mind in a personable relevant way. There is no theory, no abstract principles, only the distillation of the practice in "pure and simple" language. Very similar to Ajahn Chah's style of teaching. Though it is easy to understand even for beginners, the teaching provides for advanced practice in training the mind for on the cushion and off.
